WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 1735.

Parma, May 21. N. S.

THE 18th Inſtant, the Duke de Montemar, General of the Spaniſh Troops, arrived here, and the next Day ſet out for Guaſtalla, to aſſiſt at a Grand Council to be held there, between the King of Sardinia, the Marſhal de Noailles, and divers other General Officers. The Allies Army is encamped at preſent on the Side of Guaſtalla.

From the Camp of Guaſtalla, May 23. N. S. The French and Piedmonteze Troops, who ſince the 14th Inſtant were encamped at Sabionetta, decamped the 19th, Aſcenſion Day, paſſed the Po upon our new Bridge at Viadana, and advanced to Berſello: It proved a cruel Day for marching, on account of the continual Rains, the Ground, which the Troops occupied, being almoſt cover'd with Water and Dirt. On the 20th, the Army purſued their March, and came to encamp here, where they are to repoſe themſelves a little, to recover from the Fatigues, the March having been as troubleſome by the continual Rains, or rather melting of the Snow on the Mountains at our Right and Left, which occaſioned as great a Cold as in Winter. The King of Sardinia has thought proper to cauſe the Bridge which was between Viadana and Berſello, to fall down near this Camp, and to be laid in the ſame Place where it was laſt Year. He has cauſed 6 Battalions and 5 Squadrons to repaſs to the other Side of the Po, to reinforce thoſe commanded by the Marquis de Maulevrier, and to enable him to oppoſe the Enterprizes of the Enemy, who ſeeing our Army on the Side of the Po, ſeem'd willing to poſt themſelves again upon the Oglio.

Since his Sardinian Majeſty and the Marſhal de Noailles advanced hither with their Troops, Count Konigſegg has cauſed his Army to make ſeveral Motions, ſo different, that it is impoſſible to judge, whether he deſigns to preſerve the Poſts of Gonzaga and Reggiolo, or to leave there only ſome Detachments to cover his March. We are informed, that that General was the 19th at Gonzaga, and that he cauſed ſome Troops to advance thither to reinforce thoſe already there. The Imperialiſts, who had already two Bridges upon the Po at Sabionetta, are erecting three others upon the Secchia; but the beſt Advices we have of the Enemy's Poſition, ſay, that they are at preſent at San Benedetto; that their Right is on the Po and the Abbey; their Left on the Secchia, over againſt Quiſtello; that they retrench themſelves in their Camp; and that they beſet with Artillery and Chevaux de Friſe, the Cauſeys of three Hollow Ways they have before them. The Duke de Montemar, who came hither to confer with the King of Sardinia and the Marſhal de Noailles, ſet out the 20th to cauſe his Troops to advance, which are to have the Right, the Piedmonteze the Left, and the French will be in the Center. Our Superiority over the Enemy is ſo great, that we have all the Reaſon to hope for a happy Campaign; we might even flatter ourſelves with obliging them to quit the Mantuan, if the Situation of the Country did not render it very difficult, where there are ſeveral difficult Poſts to be forced. The Imperialiſts make frequent Courſes, 40 of our Huſſars and 20 Dragoons having Yeſterday fallen into one of their Ambuſcades. The Chevalier de Buſſelai, Lieutenant of the Regiment of Dauphin, who commanded the Dragoons, was there dangerouſly wounded. The Enemy have, on his Parole, given him Liberty to come hither. We detached immediately 200 Dragoons, and 200 Grenadiers to give the Enemy Chace; but they were ſo well intrenched, to the Number of 800, in the Caſſines, that our Detachment thought proper to return after a little Skirmiſh. The Enemy have, however, caught one of our Lieutenants, who commanded the Rear Guard. M. de Mailleboi was ſince detached with 2000 Grenadiers and 2000 Horſe, to cut off and take that Party of the Enemy, in caſe they were not retired.

Vienna, May 28. N. S. The States of Hungary have in their laſt Aſſembly obtained from the Emperor Leave to carry out of the Kingdom, during five ſucceſſive Years, Wines and Proviſions, without paying any Duty, in conſideration of the Zeal they have ſhewn in that Seſſion for the Service of his Imperial Majeſty. The Dignify'd Clergy of the Lower Auſtria have advanced to the Imperial Cheſt 600,000 Florins for the Exigencies of the preſent War. The Princes of Furſtenberg and Oettingen, married on Saturday laſt the two Princeſſes of Holſtein at Treſchau in Moravia. The Count de Czernin has obtained the Pope's Diſpenſation for marrying the Widow of the Count his Brother. It is ſaid, that a Marriage is concluded between the Count of Sintzendorff, Lord Steward to the Emperor, and the Counteſs of Hardeck, Daughter to the Count of that Name, Great Huntſman to the Emperor. The Count d'Althan, Maſter of the Horſe, is alſo to eſpouſe the Princeſs Dowager of Lobkowitz.

Copenhagen, May 28. N. S. The Princeſs Dowager of Eaſt-Frieſland, the Queen's Siſter, arrived on Wedneſday laſt at Walloe, where their Majeſties are at preſent, and was received by them with great Marks of Tenderneſs. The Court will this Day ſet out for Hierſcholm, to paſs the Whitſun-Holidays there. The King will afterwards review the three Regiments of Guards. Lieutenant-Colonel Thye is made Director of the Artillery, in the Room of the late Colonel Schweders. It is reported, that the Sale of the Effects on board the Hamburgh Ships taken and brought into this Port, will not go forward.

Month-

Months Imprisonment, to pay a Fine of 6 l. 8 d. and afterwards to find Security for his good Behaviour for two Years.

Exeter, May 30. On Friday last the Lord Bishop of this Diocese arrived here from London, on which Occasion all the ten Bells at St. Peter's Cathedral were rung. It is remarkable, that tho' there have been ten Bells several Years, the Ringers never before attempted to ring them all at once; and considering the great Burthen of the whole Ring, which is allowed to be the largest and best in Europe, and, by a moderate Computation, amounts to upwards of 27,000 lb. Weight, this extraordinary Performance was done by 33 Men.

Bristol, May 31. On Monday last was committed to Newgate William Bennet, a Watchman of this City, for the Murder of Thomas Wendsley, a Basket-maker, on Sunday Morning, by giving him a Blow with a Constable's Staff a-cross his Shoulders, and repeating it on the Left-Side of his Head, as he stood in the River, with which he sounded away in the Water, and sunk. His Body was afterwards taken up near Counter-Slip, and there appeared on the Left-Side of his Head a Wound four Inches long, and the Skull bare. In the Evening the Coroner's Inquest sate on the Body, and brought in their Verdict, Wilful Murder.

Canterbury, May 31. We hear from Romney, that, on Monday last, three Horses started for the ten Guinea Plate, which was won by Mr. Winter's Gray Mare, Whip-her-in. Mr. Wood's Sorrel Horse, Dog, won the Stakes.

On Tuesday three Horses started for the three Guinea Cup, which was won by Mr. Brook's Chesnut Gelding, Chance. Mr. Deering's Gray Gelding, Monkey, won the Stakes. And

The same Day three Horses started for the Saddle, which was won by Mr. Humphry Wightwick's Bay Horse, Touch-me-not, the other two being distanced the first Heat. There was good Diversion both Days, and a great Resort of People.

Dublin, May 24. On Thursday last came on the Trial of David Broughal of Ormond Market, Butcher, for murdering his Wife, by kicking her in the Belly the 23d of June last. He fled for the same, was apprehended at Cork, and transmitted to this City. The Evidence appearing plain against him, the Jury brought him in guilty. N. B. They were an honest Dublin Jury, who will never countenance a Murderer.

The same Day, about 6 o'Clock in the Evening, one John Green, a Butcher in Patrick-street, one of the noted Kevan Bail, kicked his Wife in the Belly, and being big with Child killed them both. He then made off from a Multitude of People, with a large Knife in his Hand, but finding he was closely pursued, leaped into the Poddle Hole, or large Shore, that runs through the Castle Yard, and so made his Escape.

Last Night died at his Seat in the Country, Alderman Thomas Quale.
